Would you like to know more about the location?

Guardamar is a coastal town located about 30 minutes south of Alicante city. It is characterized for continuing to maintain the charm of the coastal towns of the Mediterranean.

Among the attractions of the area, Guardamar stands out for its beaches, with an extension that extends from La Marina to La Mata, and a total distance of about 11 kilometers. But also, in Guardamar we can find two protected parks within the town itself, in which a large number of activities are organized, and an archaeological museum. The Mercadillo de Guardamar (Guardamar's street market), well known in the province, is held every Wednesday, and is characterised by an intimate atmosphere.

Guardamar, also has excellent communications with Alicante and Torrevieja, through the N-332. Alicante airport is just 30 minutes away. Request more information!
