Torre de la Horadada is located in the most southern point of the Alicante province in the southeast of Spain, being a coastal town the local beaches are well known for their fine sand and crystal waters. Its popularity during the busy summer months means that the town's population can quadruple in size with many visitors coming from other parts of Spain, mainly Madrid and Murcia to enjoy their summer residences. In recent years Torre de la Horadada has become the home to many expatriate residents from northern Europe, mainly from the UK and Ireland. This has led to the all year round sustainability of the town, which has resulted in the advent of new local business and amenities such as supermarkets, bars, restaurants and the construction of a new, and modern tourism complex Lo Monte. Although it's a small coastal town Torre boasts various local services such as a medical center, supermarkets and two main plazas, "Pueblo Latino" and "The Square" home to a great variety of bars, restaurants and ice cream parlors meaning that all tastes and budgets are catered for. This is where we can find a selection of unique luxury villas which are perfectly designed plus are finished to the highest of standards. Equipped with all comforts and materials of the best quality, the properties comprise of 3 bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and a further 3 bathrooms. The open plan living area comes fully fitted with a beautiful American kitchen. Each property has a huge private pool and a large plot to benefit from during the summer months. Starting at 399,000€ these beautiful villas are perfect for a holiday getaway or permanent accommodation.
